Gandhi Breaks Off Conference With British Premier

Parting of the Ways for Indian Leader and MacDonald

FAILURE ADMITTED

MacDonald Says Independence for India Still Possible

LONDON.—(AP)—Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald closed his second round table conference Tuesday with the declaration that it had failed to settle the communal problem, but that the work of arranging independence for India would go on.

Mahatma Gandhi, in a final word said after listening to Prime Minister MacDonald's words, that he and the British government had refused the parting of the ways. Mahatma steadfastly refused the compromises offered by the colleagues and declared he would return to India determined to revive a civil disobedience campaign unless the government would give what he considered a real liberty to India's millions.

Pinchot Demands Rich Provide Relief

Pennsylvania Executive Carries Federal Aid Program Direct to Capital

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—To the door of the national government, Governor Pinchot of Pennsylvania Monday night brought a demand for federal relief for the unemployed to be paid out of the pockets of the wealthy.

The grey-haired Pennsylvanian, who has been mentioned as a presidential possibility, assailed the relief program of the administration as inadequate. He spoke his views in an address before the District of Columbia League of Women Voters.

During the day, leaders of several liberal organizations met to discuss unemployment on the eve of the congressional session. They also criticized the government relief efforts. Norman Thomas, 1928 Socialist presidential candidate, said "The so-called progressives in Congress have failed."

Analysing current economic conditions, Pinchot said "concentration of wealth had reduced consuming power" had increased production beyond the limits of demand. The result, he added, was the recent economic slump.

He took issue with the administration's reported plan for sponsoring a selected sales tax as a means of meeting the Treasury deficit. The Pennsylvanian called for higher income tax rates on the larger income tax payers to solve the deficit problem and that of unemployment relief.

He said the tax return falls in the higher brackets. "But I am willing that the government shall take more of my income, rather than that millions should suffer from want and hunger," he continued. "I would be glad to see more of my estate appropriated in taxes if it be used to help set this nation on its economic feet."

Federal relief was described as "the only possible answer" to the question by Pinchot, who added, "federal aid in this depression is our clear duty and our best hope of prompt and permanent recovery."

"Those in high places have continually insisted that a national emergency be met with local aid alone," he continued. "They have put it all with the exception of a bit of benevolent advertising to the states and communities themselves."

He said Community Fund chests "would not be sufficient to meet the needs of the winter" even though full quotas were raised.

Contending property taxes constitute "the most exclusive source of income" for cities the Pennsylvanian executive asserted "in short local relief of this kind means an increase in property tax, either now or very shortly."

"Local relief means taking the poor man's pay," he said, adding that taking money from the small wage-earner through voluntary contributions or taxation would "start no factory wheels."

In the absence of congress, he continued, the nation has been committed to that program.

P. T. A. Will Present 'Oh Professor' Tuesday Night

The showing of "Oh, Professor," a Broadway production, will take place Tuesday evening at the new high school auditorium, on South Main street, beginning at 8 o'clock.

This production is said to be a scream from beginning to end, with plenty of entertainment between each act.

"Airwheel" for Autos!

The fat and squat "airwheel," already used on airplane landing gear, soon may take the place of the balloon tire in automobiles. The new tire has an inside diameter of 13 inches, as against the prevailing 19 inches of balloons, while its pressure is between 12 and 15 pounds. It is said to produce much easier riding. The tire, shown here installed, with a standard balloon alongside to show the contrast, is being produced by an Akron manufacturer.

Choice of Senator Up to Committee Session Tuesday

State Central Body Convened at Little Rock at 2 p. m.

ONLY TWO MISSING

First Test of Strength When Committee Successor Is to Be Named

LITTLE ROCK.—(AP)—Almost a full attendance of the Democratic State Central Committee in a meeting at which the United States senatorial nomination will be made was assured shortly before the committee were to assemble at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

Only two members are known to be represented by proxies, they are: Secretary J. H. Andrews, of Wynne; and Mrs. F. J. Hixon, of Turrell.

The first test is looked for when a successor to the late E. J. Kerwin of Pine Bluff is selected. Hurley Culppepper, Pace and Jo Nichol, a banker friend of Governor Parnell, are being mentioned for the place.

Jap Troops Sent South of Railroad

Weakening of Garrison Given as Cause of Movement Tuesday

MUKDEN, Manchuria.—(AP)—Japanese army headquarters here announced Tuesday it had sent reinforcements "from somewhere inside of the South Manchurian railway zone" to Tatsihar, the scene of the defeat of General Ma Chanshan's army a fortnight ago.

This action was taken because of "a dangerous situation" in the district where the Japanese garrison was reduced to a comparatively small detachment, the statement said.

Columbia Court Case Is Decided

Can't Restrain Process of Co-ordinate Court, Ruling States

LITTLE ROCK.—(AP)—The supreme court held Monday that a judge has no power to restrain processes from a court of co-ordinate jurisdiction. In so holding, the supreme court granted a writ of prohibition to restrain Chancellor George M. Leary and J. Y. Stephens of the seventh district from enforcing a writ restraining the sheriff of Columbia county from impounding property involved in a claim of O. A. Reed.

S. G. Wright and others obtained an order from the circuit court staying the judgment of the Columbia county court in paying Reed $388 on his claim, and Reed obtained an order from the chancery court directing the sheriff not to impound the property.

"When a chancellor or circuit judge has jurisdiction in a cause pending in his court and issues a writ," the opinion said, "the other court of co-ordinate jurisdiction would not have the right to interfere and prevent service of the writ. If this practice were permitted, it would create no end of confusion and the sheriff would not know which judge to obey."

The supreme court held that the question of the sale of the municipal lighting plant of Little Rock must be submitted to the voters. The city council authorized sale of the plant to Burke Smith for $10,500, but City Collector James Lawson refused to release the property to Burke after petitions asking that the question be referred were filed by taxpayers. The Pulaski circuit court refused to grant Burke a writ of mandamus against Lawson, and the supreme court affirmed it.

R. E. Dent of Faulkner county won his appeal to set aside a receiver's sale of his large plantation, the supreme court reversing the case with directions to the Faulkner chancery court to order that another sale be held. The court's opinion said the receiver, G. W. Adgisson, by unfair means prevented Dent from obtaining money to carry out a contract by which he was to bid $39,000, the amount remaining unpaid to his creditors, at the receiver's sale. Dent already had paid $30,000 to the receiver.

Rain Benefits Crops But Damages Roads

PITTSBURG, Texas.—The recent heavy rains here have been beneficial to winter pastures, but have put roads in the rural districts in bad shape, almost impassable, and some damage has been done to rolling farm lands and terraces. Most of the sweet potato crop in this county has been harvested, but a few farmers who had not finished when the rains set in are fearful of losing those not yet harvested.

CLEBURNE, Texas.—(AP)—A district court jury Sunday acquitted Mrs. May Derby of murder in the slaying of Mack Horn, her former husband, here September 28.

Convict Caught After 8 Years

Eight years after he dashed through a stockade gate to freedom from an Oklahoma penitentiary, Earl Kratz, alias Jones, above, bank bandit, was captured by officers in Pittsburgh. Kratz had lived in Pittsburgh since his escape, had married and is the father of three children.

Conner Pleads For State's Colleges

Probation With Future Reinstatement of the Schools Seen

MONTGOMERY, Ala.—(AP)—At an executive session, the plea of four Mississippi state institutions of higher learning Monday was placed before the Executive Council of the Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools of the South.

Unofficial comment was that the four institutions would be placed on probation with the commission or Executive Council being authorized to restore the four institutions to the accredited list when certain conditions that brought about suspension are corrected.

Governor-elect Conner of Mississippi who appeared before the council Monday indicated optimism on the part of Mississippians here in behalf of the four schools.

"We find no disposition on the part of the association to meddle in our internal affairs," Mr. Conner said, "or attempt to dictate the plan of control of our higher institutions of learning or to select the employees for these institutions."

"We did not come here for the purpose of submitting these matters to the association. We are hopeful that a plan will be devised whereby credits of students now unrolled will be protected and whereby plans for complete restoration of the institutions will be gained before the opening of the next scholastic year."

Poultry Meeting Texarkana Friday

Braemar Hatchery to Be Scene of Program This Week

A meeting of interest to every poultryman and those interested in poultry is announced by the Braemar Hatchery of Texarkana for next Friday afternoon, December 4. The meeting will begin at 1 o'clock and is to be held at their hatchery plant, 601 Dudley avenue.

G. W. Adams, representative of a well known mill, will be the principal speaker and will address his meeting on the subject of brooding and profits in poultry. He has made a complete survey of conditions in the poultry industry and will impart some profitable information to those who attend the meeting Friday.

The Braemar Hatchery is one of the largest commercial hatcheries in the state. In connection with the hatchery this firm maintains a large poultry farm near Texarkana.

Members of the Hempstead County Foultry Association have been invited to attend this meeting and a number have already expressed a desire to go to Texarkana Friday afternoon.

Minstrel and Revue at Guernsey Friday

A minstrel revue for the benefit of the Water Creek church piano fund is to be given at Guernsey school at 7:30 o'clock Friday night, December 4.

Students have been in rehearsal for several weeks, and an interesting program of black-face and vaudeville acts is promised. There will be a musical mission, the proceeds to complete payment of the church's piano.

Denial of Seat to John H. Bankhead of Alabama Sought

Further Contest in State Election Being Brought by Senator Heflin

HEFLIN IS CONFIDENT

Several Hundred Cases of Irregularities Cited by Chairman Hastings

WASHINGTON.—(AP)—A report recommending that the Senate deny a seat to Senator-elect John H. Bankhead, Democrat of Alabama, is being prepared by Chairman Hastings' election sub-committee, who are considering a contest against the Alabama election, brought by Senator Heflin, who was defeated in a contested election.

Heflin Monday issued a statement saying he would be given the contested seat.

Hastings is citing several hundred cases of alleged irregularities in the election in which Bankhead won over Heflin by some 50,000 votes as grounds for denying the seat to Bankhead.

No reports are expected to be made to prevent Bankhead from taking his seat when the senate convenes however.

Under the Hastings plan, the action will come when the committee report is submitted.

M. E. Conference Opens Wednesday

Bishop Dobbs Will Meet With Presiding Elders on Tuesday

LITTLE ROCK.—Delegates to the 78th annual session of the Little Rock Conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, which will convene at the First church of Little Rock, Eighth and Louisiana streets, at 9 a. m. Wednesday are expected to begin arriving during the afternoon and night. More than 500 ministers and lay delegates to the conference are expected to attend the opening session.

Bishop Hoyt M. Dobbs of Shreveport, presiding bishop of the Southern Methodist church in Arkansas, will meet Tuesday with presiding elders of the conference to select annual committees. The committees later will be submitted to the conference for approval.

Reports of ministers and church institutions, including the Methodist colleges in Arkansas, Hendrix at Conway and Galloway Woman's College at Searcy, will occupy much of the time of the conference. It is expected that the organization will adjourn Saturday morning temporarily to attend the dedication of the new science hall at Hendrix College.

Devotional meetings will be held each night. The final session will be held Sunday night, when Bishop Dobbs will announce appointments for the next conference year. The Rev. Paul W. Quillian, pastor of Winfield Memorial church of Little Rock, is concluding his fourth year as pastor of the church, and by custom of the church, is eligible for a transfer Sunday night.

Evangelist Again Beaten in Missouri

Recently Acquitted of Lying School Teachers at Newburg

SPRINGFIELD, Mo.—(AP)—Paul M. Bennett, Newburg (Mo.) evangelist, against whom charges of libeling Miss Olive Warner, a school teacher, recently were dismissed, reported to authorities Monday that he had been beaten unconscious by two masked men who dragged him from his car while he was en route home from Springfield.

The beating was the second the evangelist has suffered since coming to Newburg. He was injured in a fist fight with a deputy fish and game warden last July.

Authorities expressed belief that Bennett's failure to leave Newburg after the criminal libel charge against him was dismissed, led to the attacks upon him. Mrs. Bennett said he had received threatening letters.

They said the evangelist had agreed to leave in advance of dismissal of the case. He was charged with libeling Miss Warner, a school teacher, by accusing her of drinking. The teachers were cleared by the Board of Regents of the Southwest Missouri State Teachers College here and employed for another term in the Newburg schools.

Quarantine Lifted Tuesday on Fever Tick Infestation

Bulletins

VANCOUVER, B. C.—(AP)—Sailing in an opposite direction along the 1,200 mile Pacific rim of the United States for a new record between Canada and Mexico, Captain Frank Hawks took off here at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, two hours and 42 minutes after J. R. Wedell, zoomed northward from the Mexican border. Wedell reached Reno and refueled early in the afternoon. Hawks refueled at Portland, Oregon.

TRENTON, N. J.—(AP)—W. Warren Barbour, formerly mayor of Rumson and a wealthy thread manufacturer was appointed Tuesday by Governor Morgan F. Larson to succeed the late Dwight H. Morrow as United States senator from New Jersey.

Another Anti-Dry Slated For House

New Jersey District Election Finds Both Major Candidates "Wet"

ELIZABETH, N. J.—(AP)—The "wet" bloc in Congress will receive a recruit from New Jersey Tuesday unless the voters in the Fifth Congressional district forsake party lines entirely.

Both the Republican and Democratic candidates for the House seat left vacant by the death of Representative Ernest R. Ackerman, a dry Republican, have declared themselves for modification of the Volstead act to permit manufacture and sale of light wines and beer.

Democratic state leaders, including Governor-elect A. Harry Moore, have taken an active part in the campaign of their party's candidate, Percy H. Stewart of Plainfield. His program asks repudiation of the national administration.

Moore, campaigning for governor on a similar platform, ran up a plurality of about 10,000 votes in the Fifth district in the state election early this month.

Donald N. McLean of Elizabeth, Republican candidate, has endorsed the policies of President Hoover and promises to uphold the administration. A challenge to the major parties' hopes was issued by Alexis L. Clark, prohibitionist, who said dry voters of the district would vote for him with unanimity. Harry F. Kopp, Socialist, and Morris Laudee, Communist, also are on the ticket.

Playing "Theater" Ends in Shooting; Man Held

NEW YORK.—(AP)—They were playing "theater."

Clarence Hitchcock took the part of the philanderer-homewrecker. His best friend, John Tilker, portrayed the role of the husband who comes at the end of the second act and finds his wife in the arms of another man.

Just a play, of course, but it was jolly entertainment.

Tilker entered. He saw his make-believe wife in the arms of her make-believe betrayer. He pulled a pistol from his pocket, aimed dramatically—and fired.

It was all in fun.

The bullet in Hitchcock's neck may cause his death.

Tilker is held for felonious assault.

Blast At Refinery Causes $10,000 Fire

Root Refinery Near El Dorado Scene of Explosion Early Monday

EL DORADO.—An explosion followed by a fire at the Root refinery a mile east of El Dorado Monday morning caused a loss estimated at $10,000. The blaze was extinguished by the company's chemical and steam fire fighting apparatus and the damage was held to the unit where the explosion occurred.

It was announced that a pipe in what is known as a pipe still exploded and threw blazing oil over the unit. No one was burned, according to the superintendent of the plant, who said that the damage will be repaired in about a week's time.

ant years work of my life." This county is now tick free. It remains for the citizens to keep it so. People who move live stock here from an infested area should be reported at once. One animal coming from a county that is not free from ticks might infect an entire herd. For this reason all people are urged to cooperate in reporting any stock shipped or driven into this county from a source of infection. There are three pastures, two west and one south of Hope, where ticks were found late this summer. Stock in these pastures are still under local quarantine, according to Mr. Aldridge. The owners will be required to dip or spray this stock every 28 days during the winter months and every 14 days up until the first of July. After this the entire county will be free from ticks.

Mr. Aldridge and his family will move from Hope to Ashley county within the next two weeks where he will take up a similar work there, beginning about the first of March. There are five counties in the Southeast corner of the state in which eradication work will be carried out next year. Along the Ashley county and the Louisiana state line it is the plan of the government to build 25 miles of fence to protect the cattlemen in Arkansas against infestation from Louisiana as this is not a tick free state.

A great work has been accomplished in Hempstead county. Folks for years have known that when the tick eradication program was launched there would be lots of hard work required. There were some doubters, who said that it could not be done, but it is finished and now everybody is thankful that there will not be any more dipping days.

C. Rhonemus, 56, of Clinton county, Ohio, has voted for eighteen Democratic candidates for president.

College Girls Eat Lamb Stew, Thus Aiding Poor

SOUTH HADLEY, Mass.—(P)—The girls at Mount Holyoke College—1,950 of them—ate beans and lamb stew Sunday and thereby contributed several hundred dollars for the assistance of unfortunate children. Usually the girls dine upon chicken, ice cream and other delicacies on Sunday. But this Sunday two simple menus were substituted, the savings in the cost of the meal going to the Golden Rule Foundation in New York. They had their choice of beans and brown bread, or lamb stew with biscuits. The stew met with slightly greater favor than the beans. AT THE THEATER

To enjoy a football game as no stadium-sitter, even the most football-wise stadium-sitter, could enjoy it is the privilege offered to audiences by the Saenger Theatre in the presentation there Wednesday and Thursday of "Touchdown".

For this picture, devised and played by the most impressive assemblage of gridiron and film authorities ever to be called into a "huddle" on a pigskin-screen production, takes the beholder right into the hearts of those excited heroes and near-heroes who prepare and serve up the great American Saturday afternoon thrill-dash. "Touchdown" is a football story which (at last) does not attain its effects through a last-minute, heroic dash across the opponents' grimly defended goal-posts. The glory and exaltation rather, is wholly moral; and unattended by the customary winning of the crucial game. In fact, in "Touchdown" the home team actually loses the final game.

By employing the talents of men who know their football and who know their human nature, Paramount here presents, in effectively touching realism, the inside goings-on, the fears and joys, the pain and glory of an heroic national pastime. Francis Wallace, who was Knute Rockne's press representative for several of his most successful years as the world's greatest football coach, wrote the story. He is an eminent authority on football, and has written two novels, "Huddle" and "Stadium," about the grid game.

Reel, Tommy, Jack Oakie and Farrel McDonald are featured members of the cast. In addition there are many football notables in the lineup. Among them are Howard Jones U. S. C. football coach; four U. S. C. all-American grid-dashers; Drury Russ Saunders, Jesse Hibbs and Nate Barrager; Dale Van Syckle, all-American end for Florida in 1929; Hermin Brink, Washington tackle in 1921; Roy Riegels, California varsity captain in 1928; Tom Lieb, chief assistant to Knute Rockne in 1929; Jim Thorpe, Carlisle Indian, Olympics champion, and rated as the greatest athlete of modern times—and many others.

Charles Starrett, who played varsity football at Dartmouth, is the leading player-interest in the tale as the brother of Peggy Shannon, daughter of George Barbier, wealthy football fan who has built the big stadium for his alma mater, Midwest. As the coach at Midwest, Arlen falls in love with Peggy, and almost loses her when he loses the final game by refusing to let Starrett play because of an injury. But because of his tenacity to this high principle, Arlen in effect saves Starrett from being a permanent cripple—and the denouement with Peggy is a happy one when she realizes the full importance of the situation.

The Chicago Follies, which will be the added stage attraction at Saenger Theatre for two days beginning Wednesday, is noted for the unusual excellence of its talent. The fast musical revue is headed by Ches Davis, a blackface comedian without a peer, who has been the star of his own attractions for many years. Gene "Honey Owl" Cobb shares stellar honors with Ches Davis in the Chicago Follies and will be remembered as a featured artist with Neil O'Brien's Minstrels and many other big acts.
